Belgium provides the musically obsessed with the perfect destination to get their fix. In Brussels, the Royal Center for Fine Arts, known as BOZAR, and Forest National regularly host music festivals and performances from top international artists. Each May, the city comes alive during the Jazz Marathon Weekend with 150 free concerts and 450 musicians.

Dinant, a small Belgian town in the southern French-speaking region of the country, is the birthplace of the saxophone, so it is no surprise that it hosts its own international saxophone competition. In addition to jazz, Belgium is also home to music festivals celebrating a variety of music genres, including reggae, classical, rock and other global music trends.

WHETHER YOU ENJOY URBAN GETAWAYS OR GETTING AWAY FROM IT ALL, BELGIUM IS THE PERFECT DESTINATION FOR TWO

With more castles per square mile than anywhere else in the world, romance and Belgium are a natural combination. Brussels' Grand Place, the medieval square in the heart of the old city, is the perfect backdrop for photographs with that special someone before heading back to an elegant and contemporary room in Odette en Ville. Those who would rather venture outside the city may want to consider staying in a castle like the Chateau d'Hassonville, in Aye, whose exquisite scenery was a favorite of Louis the XIV. The Manoir de Lébioles also makes for a great romantic getaway with its lush landscapes and relaxing spa treatments.
